

WHAT NOW?

TEEN CRASH CARD

STAY CALM • BE SAFE • FOLLOW THESE STEPS

1

STOP + GET SAFE

- Pull over to a safe spot if you can.

- Turn on hazard lights.

- Check yourself and others for injuries.

- Move out of traffic if it's safe.

- Call 911 if anyone is hurt, if there is major damage, or if you feel unsafe.

2

CALL YOUR ADULT

Immediately call a parent/guardian.

Tell them:

- Where you are
- What happened
- If anyone is hurt
- If police are on the way

Stay on the phone until they say it's okay to hang up.

3

WITH THE OTHER DRIVER

- Be polite and calm.

● Exchange:

- Name
- Phone number
- Insurance information
- Driver's license number
- License plate number

- Stay calm, be respectful, and explain what happened honestly. You don't need to argue about who caused the accident.

4

TAKE PHOTOS

- Take clear photos of:

- All vehicle damage
- Both license plates
- Location (street signs, intersection)
- Road conditions
- Any relevant signs or signals
- Other driver's info (if available)

5

WHAT TO COLLECT

- Other driver's name, phone number, insurance, license number, and license plate number.
- Photos (see #4).
- Police report number (if police respond).
- Tow company name and phone number (if needed).
- Names and phone numbers of any witnesses.
- Date, time, and exact location.

Write it down:

Driver name: _____
 Phone: _____
 Plate: _____
 Case #: _____
 Tow company: _____

BEFORE
YOU LEAVE:

- ✓ Make sure you have the police report number (if any).
- ✓ Get officer name and badge number.
- ✓ Confirm tow info (if needed).
- ✓ Take your phone, wallet, backpack and valuables.

6

IF YOU DON'T FEEL RIGHT

- Even if you feel okay, tell a parent/guardian.
- Some injuries (like concussion or whiplash) can show up hours or days later.
- Get checked by a doctor if you have a headache, neck/back pain, dizziness, or just feel "off".

7

IMPORTANT REMINDERS

- Ask your parent, guardian, or trusted adult to help you understand the next steps.
- Only share facts with police and insurance.
- Don't post about the accident on social media.
- Be honest and calm when speaking with police or your parents.
- You did the right thing by staying calm and following these steps.

Teen-created educational safety resource — not legal, medical, or insurance advice.
 Follow instructions from emergency personnel and official local resources.

PREPARED TEENS MAKE SAFER ROADS.

DRIVE SAFE • STAY AWARE • YOU GOT THIS.